

RACINE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Public Literature Shelves Use Policy

Adopted by the Library Board October 15, 1998

Purpose of the Public Literature Shelves

The purpose of the public literature shelves at the Racine Public Library is to make available free public information regarding cultural, recreational, educational, and human services programs and events, which are available/open to the public.

Content Disclaimer

The Library does not evaluate the beliefs or purposes of the sponsoring parties, and providing space for distribution of this literature does not imply endorsement by the Library of any group, their ideas or programs.

Available Space Limited

Acceptable public literature is received and shelved on a first-come, first-served basis, and the Racine Public Library reserves the right to remove and discard materials when space is not available in the designated location, and/or the literature has been on the shelves more than 30 days.
